Discussion of purpose of meeting

Minutes:

- Reflection on the purpose of the SBDM Committee. How SBDM correlates with our CIP.
- Parent representative was introduced, Apolonia Arteaga (mother of 5th grade student).
- Students of the month were picked for September last month, and we will continue this process throughout the year
- Teacher of the first nine weeks was selected- not selected. Will be voting next week.
- Lummus has had 3 PTO Meetings. Many new volunteers and the PTO is very committed to being active and helping the school.
- Monster Dash and Family Fall Night is Friday, 10/20.
- PTO fundraiser has been in full swing and will end tomorrow, 10/19. So far results are very good.
- Lummus is a 4th and 5th grade campus now, but is the largest populated intermediate school in the district. Continues to get new enrollees almost weekly.
- Welcomed 9 new classroom teachers this year.
- Very optimistic for student growth this year. Saw growth across the board this past year.
- CIP was reviewed and on track for showing progress through the first quarter.
- First nine weeks incentive party will be 10/11, Boo Bash. Planning for winter bash started.
- Lummus store is being replenished and will have time arranged for students to visit store. Lummus Store has been a success this year.
- We have switched to unit tests instead of quarterlies
- Student groups designed based off of data still.
- iReady- continuing to use iReady and have incentivised this program.
- Teachers have been successfully utilizing PLC weekly.
